

"SALVATION IS OF THE JEWS"

PART I

THE COMPLETE PANORAMA OF SALVATION EFFECTED THROUGH THE JEWS

"Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship:
for salvation is of the Jews" (John 4:22).

God's complete plan of salvation/deliverance for fallen man, whether past, present, or future, is effected through ONE nation and ONE person from that nation, which can trace its/ His origin/existence on earth to ONE man and his progeny. "Salvation" is effected through Abraham and his seed, through Isaac, Jacob, and Jacob's twelve sons, from whom sprang the nation of Israel, from which Christ came.

BUT, salvation, in this respect, does NOT have its origin with the birth of Abraham, or his seed, extending to the birth of Christ 2,000 years later.

RATHER, salvation, inseparably associated with the Jewish people, has its origin in God's activities preceding man's creation and fall, at the time of the restoration of the earth beginning in Gen. 1:2b ff (I Peter 1:18-20; Rev. 13:8), with a continuing Divine, restorative work seen from that point in time forward.

Thus, even during the 2,000-year period extending from Adam to Abraham, Abraham and his progeny STILL occupy center-stage in this respect. Preceding Abraham, matters regarding salvation are seen in the LOINS of Abraham; following Abraham, matters regarding salvation are seen in the SEED of Abraham.

(Refer to Part II of this article for material on "the loins of Abraham.")

The birth of Abraham 2,000 years beyond man's creation and fall, the subsequent bringing into existence of the nation of Israel 500 years later, and the crucifixion of Israel's Messiah at the end of an additional 1,500 years, ALL happened at appointed times in man's history.

But the existence of the nation of Israel and the death of Christ, in another frame of reference, NOT ONLY predate Abraham BUT predate man's creation and fall:

"...the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world" (Rev. 13:8b).

An impossibility? "In man's finite wisdom and ways, yes"; BUT, "NOT in God's infinite wisdom and ways" (Isa. 28:21; 55:8, 9).

Note, for example, IF "salvation is of the Jews," which it is plainly declared to be, HOW could man have been saved during the 2,500-year period between man's fall and the bringing into existence, during Moses' day, the nation through which salvation was to be effected?

Or, IF salvation can be found ONLY in Jesus the Christ, which Scripture plainly declares — a Jew from the nation through which salvation is to be effected, through the events of Calvary and His shed blood; or a continuing aspect of salvation through Christ's current ministry in the heavenly sanctuary on the basis of His shed blood on the mercy seat — HOW could man have realized either or both aspects of salvation during the 4,000-year period preceding Calvary?

And, IF, as previously seen, Christ was "slain from the foundation of the world," which He plainly was (Rev. 13:8, referencing God's activity at the time of Gen. 1:2b ff; cf. I Peter 1:18-20), WHERE was the ONLY nation which could slay Christ at THIS time — a nation which, of necessity, HAD to be present BUT would NOT exist in history for another 2,500 years?

The “paschal lamb” was given to Israel, “Christ” was the paschal Lamb, and ONLY Israel could slay THIS Lamb (Ex. 12:1ff). Again, HOW could Israel be present when the paschal Lamb was slain prior to man’s creation and fall, at the time seen in Rev. 13:8?

The simple fact of the matter is that ISRAEL HAD TO BE PRESENT! Apart from Israel, there could have been NO such thing as the existence of ANY part of that seen in the whole panorama of salvation at ANY point in man’s 6,000-year history, or even a few days before this when God began restoring the ruined creation.

And, to continue from that point, in like manner, APART FROM ISRAEL — seen at the center of everything during present time, or any time in all of man’s future history — there can be NO such thing as ANY part of the overall salvation process ever entering into the picture.

Salvation, Past — Israel in the Old Testament —

Beginning with the inception of the nation of Israel under Moses, the complete panorama of salvation in the Old Testament, dating back to the time of God’s beginning work in the restoration of the material creation (Gen. 1:2b ff), can easily be shown.

God’s requirement to rectify the sin problem, brought into existence through man’s fall, was set forth in the opening chapters of Genesis, preceding, at the time of, and following man’s fall.

Preceding man’s fall, Israel slays Christ (Gen. 1; cf. I Peter 1:18-20; Rev. 13:8).

At the time of man’s fall, God slays one or more innocent animals (Gen. 3).

Then, following man’s fall, Cain slays Abel, typifying Israel slaying Christ (Gen. 4).

In each instance, death and shed blood are seen; and, as set forth in both the restoration of the material creation in Genesis chapter one and the provision for Adam and Eve in Genesis chapter three, a Divine work, SOLELY of the Lord, is seen.

Thus, salvation is “of the Jews,” the nation descending from Abraham (John 4); salvation is “of the Lord,” solely a Divine work (Gen. 1:2b ff; Jonah 2:9); and salvation is via “death and shed blood,” that which God requires (Gen. 1, 3, 4).

Now, note how this is handled in Ex. 12:1ff at the time of the inception of the nation, 2,500 years later during Moses’ day. Again, the matter is handled via death and shed blood at ALL points.

A passing from death unto life (John 5:24), a past aspect of salvation, had to be the FIRST thing to occur — in complete keeping with that initially seen in God’s restorative work on day one in Gen. 1:2b-5. And this occurred through the death of paschal lambs and the proper application of the blood (Ex. 12:1-13).

Then, the subsequent institution of a priesthood and a priestly ministry in the camp of Israel continued the thought of salvation in a present respect, in complete keeping with that initially typified in God’s restorative work on days two through six in Gen. 1:6-25, preceding man’s creation (vv. 26-28). And this present act of salvation through a priestly ministry occurred through the death and shed blood of animal sacrifices (Ex. 40:12-16; Lev. 1:1-17:16).

And, with the tabernacle as the place of sacrifice — with its brazen altar, mercy seat, and God dwelling above the mercy seat between the cherubim, dwelling in the people’s midst, forming a theocracy — the goal, made known at Sinai, was for a cleansed people to dwell in the land covenanted to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, within a theocracy.

And within this theocracy, Israel was to dwell at the head of the nations, with the nations evangelized by and blessed through Israel (Ex. 19:5, 6; Isa. 53:1ff).

But, in the light of Heb. 10:4, the efficacy of Old Testament animal sacrifices, necessary to effect the preceding, is often questioned:

“For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins” (cf. v. 11).

However, if efficacy CANNOT be seen in the sacrifices, WHY did God instruct that they be offered?

Then, beyond that, it is CLEAR that God recognized efficacy through these sacrifices.

The seeming problem though can be EASILY resolved. Note the very next verse, Heb. 10:5, in the light of Rev. 13:8 (Christ “slain from the foundation of the world”):

“Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldst not, but a body thou hast prepared me.”

Christ was slain “from the foundation of the world,” BUT yet to be slain in a human body (in “time” as we know and understand it [cf. Eccl. 3:14, 15]), for this preceded man’s creation and Christ’s incarnation. And God evidently recognized the efficacy of animal sacrifices for the first 4,000 years of human history ON the BASIS of that having previously occurred, referenced in Rev. 13:8.

Salvation — Present — Christians in the New Testament —

Once God had taken on human form in the person of His Son, had died and shed His blood at Calvary (Acts 20:28), matters with regard to animal sacrifices and the Son “slain from the foundation of the world,” of necessity, changed (Heb. 9:11-28; 10:10-20).

Animal sacrifices were NO longer necessary or efficacious, for the One “slain from the foundation of the world” had NOW died, as a Man for man, shedding His blood for fallen man.

He had NOW died as the paschal Lamb in Ex. 12:1ff, NOW it was the blood of this latter slaying of the paschal Lamb which was to be applied, and this was to be accomplished simply “by faith,” “by believing” (Acts 16:30, 31; Eph. 2:8, 9).

THEN, as in the Old Testament priestly ministry in connection with the tabernacle and shed blood, Christ subsequently began/is presently ministering on behalf of Christians, on the basis of His shed blood on the mercy seat in the heavenly tabernacle (Heb. 4:14-16; 9:11-28; I John 1:5-2:2).

And, where Scripture takes matters in this present aspect of salvation is EXACTLY as matters were seen occurring in the camp of Israel under Moses in the Old Testament type.

This MUST be the case, for the antitype MUST follow the type in EXACT detail. BOTH originate from the same Divine mind, necessitating the same Divine, corresponding perfection.

A theocracy, with a rule over the nations from an earthly land, awaited the seed of Abraham in the Old Testament; and a theocracy, with a rule over the nations from a heavenly land, awaits the seed of Abraham today (Christians are the seed of Abraham through being “in Christ,” Abraham’s Seed [Gal 3:29]).

Salvation, Future, During the Messianic Era — Israel and the Nations —

During the coming Messianic Era, a repentant, cleansed, and restored Israel — restored as the wife of Jehovah — will dwell in a restored land ruling over the nations. And occupying this position, the Jewish people will be God’s evangelists to the nations, carrying the message of the one true and living God throughout the earth, with the nations being reached by and blessed through Israel (Isa. 2:2-4; 43:7-10).

And Israel's Messiah, God in the person of His Son, will dwell in their midst, seated on David's throne, forming a theocracy on earth once again (Ezek. 37:21-28).

During this same 1,000-year era, Christians, forming Christ's bride, will dwell in the same heavenly land presently occupied by Satan and his angels (the incumbent rulers over the nations, ruling from this sphere).

And Christ, with His bride, will be seated on His Own throne in this heavenly sphere, ruling the nations with "a rod of iron" (Rom. 8:18-23; Heb. 3:1; Rev. 2:26-28; 3:21).

Christ, in this respect, will have a dual reign — seated on David's throne in the midst of His people, Israel, on earth; and seated on His Own throne, with His bride, in the heavens.

With Everything Revolving Around Israel

As seen, Scripture places Israel in a position at the center of anything and everything having to do with man's salvation, whether past, present, or future.

Israel brought forth and slew the Saviour, allowing for a past aspect of salvation. This Jewish Saviour is presently performing a work as High Priest, allowing for a present aspect of salvation. And this Jewish Saviour will one day occupy the position of a King-Priest in Jerusalem — after the order of Melchizedek — allowing for a future aspect of salvation.

Then it was Israel which gave us God's Word, a Jewish book, relating ALL that God would have man know about the matter, a living Word which is able to build one up and give him an inheritance in Christ's coming kingdom (Acts 20:32).

ALL in the complete panorama of events — past, present, and future — has its roots in the JEWISH NATION!

Remove the Jew, and you have NOTHING! Keep the Jew in his proper place, and you have EVERYTHING!

“SALVATION IS OF THE JEWS”

PART II

IN THE LOINS OF ABRAHAM

GOD'S TWO FIRSTBORN SONS IN THE OLD TESTAMENT

“And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, paid tithes in Abraham.

For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchizedek met him” (Heb. 7:9, 10; cf. Gen. 14:17-15:4).

The introduction of the nation of Israel in Scripture, along with the supply of a continuing wealth of information pertaining to this nation, is seen at a time MUCH earlier than man might think or imagine.

For example, in Ex. 12:40, 41, Israel, God's firstborn son (Ex. 4:22, 23), is seen sojourning in a land throughout the four hundred thirty years leading up to the beginning of the nation's existence — a sojourn which began at the time Abraham left Ur of the Chaldees, thirty years prior to the birth of Isaac (cf. Gen. 12:1-3; Gal. 3:15-18)..

Or, as seen in the text, in Heb. 7:9, 10, Levi is seen having paid tithes in the loins of Abraham (his great grandfather), at the time Abraham met Melchizedek in Genesis chapter fourteen (vv. 17-24), again, prior to the birth of Isaac.

Thus, a nation which would NOT exist UNTIL four hundred thirty years had passed is seen in the loins of Abraham at the time he left Ur at the age of seventy. And matters regarding Israel in this respect can be taken back even farther than the preceding, MUCH farther (e.g., Shem, nine generations preceding Abraham).

Information regarding the nation of Israel begins in Genesis much earlier than Abraham's birth in chapter eleven, or actually even the account of that stated about Shem in chapter nine. Information regarding Israel in Scripture actually begins at a time BEFORE the Spirit of God moved upon the ruined creation in Gen. 1:2b and continues from that point throughout the first 2,000 years of human history, preceding the birth of Abraham, the father of the nation of Israel (Gen. 1:2b-11:26).

References to or events pertaining to the nation, centuries and millenniums prior to the existence of the nation, can EASILY be seen in passages such as Gen. 3:15 (the Seed of the woman [Christ, coming through Israel]), or in Gen. 4:1ff (the typology of Cain and Abel), or in Gen. 6:1-8:22 (the typology of Noah passing through the Flood), or in Gen. 9:25-27 (that stated about Shem, Ham and Japheth).

BUT, HOW can things pertaining to Israel be seen beginning at a time preceding the earth's restoration and continuing into man's creation in the opening verses of chapter one?

Note five verses of Scripture in four New Testament books:

"Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews" (John 4:22).

"For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:

And he is before all things, and by him all things consist ['all things have been established,' 'all things hold together']" (Col. 1:16, 17).

"Hath in these last days spoken unto us by ['in the person of'] his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds ['brought into existence (arranged) the ages']" (Heb. 1:2).

“And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him [the Beast], whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world” (Rev. 13:8).

In the first of the preceding references, “salvation” is clearly stated to be “of the Jews.” This is the nation which brought forth the Saviour, Who, in the fourth and last of the references, was “slain from the foundation of the world” (which takes one back to the time of Gen. 1:2b ff [cf. I Peter 1:18-20]).

(How can one son [Israel] be present at a time prior to that son’s existence? That has already been addressed after one fashion, but it can also be addressed by asking, How could the other Son [Christ] have been slain at a time prior to His incarnation and the events of Calvary?

Then, WHO slew Christ at the time seen in Rev. 13:8 — “from the foundation of the world” [i.e., from the time of events in Gen. 1:2b ff]?

ONLY one person could possibly be seen as the slayer; ONLY the other son could have committed this act, as seen in the typology of Cain slaying his brother, Abel, in Gen. 4.

Christ was the Paschal Lamb, the paschal lamb was given to Israel [Ex. 12:1ff], and ONLY Israel could slay the paschal lamb. It matters not whether the event occurred at the time of the restoration of the ruined material creation or 4,000 years later at Calvary. The SAME two individuals — the SAME two Sons — had to be involved. There is simply NO other way for the event to occur at ANY time in history.

Suffice it to say that “with God ALL things are possible” [Matt. 19:26].)

Then note the other two previously quoted references, the second and third references, which have to do with God’s actions in relation to the whole of the matter, with NOTHING occurring apart from His Son.

Any time God's work is seen in Scripture (e.g., His restorative work occurring over six days time in Gen. 1:2b ff), His Son, "slain from the foundation of the world," has to be seen as well, for NOTHING has ever occurred or ever will occur apart from the Son.

And this is the One Whom the nation of Israel would bring forth and slay, though the Son both existed and was slain prior to this time.

"Salvation" is NOT ONLY "of the Jews," BUT "Neither is there salvation in any other [a reference to the One Whom Israel brought forth]" (John 4:22; Acts 4:12) — inseparable references to BOTH of God's two firstborn Sons.

To separate God's two firstborn Sons in Biblical studies (Ex. 4:22, 23; Heb. 1:6) — dealing with one apart from the other — is simply NOT possible.

This is one reason that the same Scriptures are, at times, used of both (e.g., Hos. 11:1; Jonah 1:17 [cf. Matt. 2:15; 12:38-40]); and to see one Son (Christ) apart from the other son (Israel) in the restoration account, beginning in Gen. 1:2b, can ONLY be a completely improper way to view the matter.

Beginning revelation pertaining to Israel has to be seen at least as early as Gen. 1:2b ff, for the work was done completely in connection with and through the One in Whom salvation (restoration) lies; and this Son (Christ) CANNOT be separated from the other son (Israel), in whom salvation (restoration) lies as well.

BUT, there is still more to the matter, necessitating that the Lamb in Rev. 13:8 HAD to be slain at a time PRECEDING God's restorative work detailed in Gen. 1:2b ff.

Note how this can be known:

As previously seen in this article, it can be easily shown, beginning with Gen. 3, that death and shed blood

MUST be present for ANY aspect of salvation to exist or be efficacious. And that, of course, would include NOT ONLY the past aspect of salvation BUT the present aspect as well, with a VIEW to the future aspect.

THEN, something invariably overlooked is the fact that this has to do with MORE than just fallen man; this, as well, has to do with the material creation, presently under a curse because of man's fall.

The preceding can easily be seen in Rev. 5, where Christ — NOT as “the Lion of the tribe of Judah” (v. 5) BUT “a Lamb as it had been slain” (v. 6) — acts in THIS capacity, for the seven-sealed scroll which the Son took from His Father's right hand contained the redemptive terms of the earth (vv. 1, 7; cf. Rom. 8:19-22).

And God's Son, taking this scroll, subsequently breaks the seals (Rev. 6:1ff) while exercising the office of the slain Lamb, NOT a Lion (though in view because of the judgmental nature of that about to occur).

REDEMPTION is in view, which requires, NOT just a lamb, BUT a PARTICULAR Lamb (vv. 2-6). And, beyond that, THIS Lamb HAD to be slain. There HAD to be death and shed blood.

Death and shed blood are required for the future redemption of the earth. In this respect, APART from death and shed blood, the earth could NEVER be redeemed.

Thus, APART from Christ's finished work at Calvary, it is NOT just man that would find himself separated from redemption BUT the earth as well.

Then, if the preceding is true, and it is, HOW could God have previously performed a redemptive work in relation to the same earth when He, over six days time, restored the ruined earth in Gen. 1?

After all, Christ's finished work at Calvary lay 4,000 years in the future.

WHERE was the death and shed blood, by ONE PARTICULAR LAMB, when God restored the earth 6,000 years prior to the time when He will do it again, as seen in Rev. 5 (cf. vv. 2-6)?

After all, IF God required death and shed blood the second time, would He NOT have required it the first time as well?

THEN, beyond the preceding, note that the first restoration of the material creation foreshadows man's restoration, following the fall in Gen. 3. This is the original type, establishing a foundation which NOT ONLY NEVER changes BUT a foundation upon which ALL subsequent material dealing with man's salvation MUST rest.

And, since death and shed blood MUST be present when redemption is in view — whether man or the material creation, again, WHERE was the death and shed blood in the restoration account in Gen. 1?

Are we to think that death and shed blood were ABSENT in Gen. 1 — relative to the earth's redemption, foreshadowing man's redemption — NOT being seen until Gen. 3?

HARDLY!

The necessity of death and shed blood being present in the earth's redemption in BOTH Gen. 1 and Rev. 5, along with Gen. 1 forming the original foundational type foreshadowing man's redemption (both past and present, with a view to the future), is WHY Christ is seen in Rev. 13:8 as "the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world" (in a book dealing specifically with the earth's future redemption, reflecting back on a past redemption/restoration).

Apart from God working things out in this manner there could have been NO restoration of the earth in Gen. 1, there could have been NO complete original type of man's salvation (complete with death and shed blood), and there evidently could have been NO efficacy in animal sacrifices for the first 4,000 years of human history (reflecting back on the Lamb slain prior to that time).

THUS, Man's Day begins in Genesis with redemption, inseparably associated with death and shed blood, having to do with BOTH the material creation and man.

THEN, redemption in connection with death and shed blood is seen throughout Man's 6,000-year Day, redeeming man to ultimately rule this material creation.

AND, Man's Day is brought to a close in Revelation with redemption and shed blood, redeeming once again the material creation for man to rule.

Then, note Genesis chapter two where details pertaining to man's creation in chapter one are given. And these details have to do with the bride being removed from the body.

In the historical account, in the type, Adam was put to sleep, his side opened, and God took from his opened side a part of his body (a rib), from which he formed the woman, Eve.

Then God presented the woman back to the man as a helpmate; and, through this act, the woman, formed from a part of the man, completed the man.

And the antitype is easy to see.

The second Man, the last Adam, was put to sleep on the Cross, His side was opened, and out of His opened side flowed the two elements which God is presently using to form the bride — blood and water — pointing to the present high priestly work of the Son (a cleansing, on the basis of His shed blood on the mercy seat in the heavenly sanctuary).

Then, once the bride has been removed from the body (the Spirit's work during the present dispensation), and the bride subsequently revealed (through decisions and determinations resulting from the judgment seat), the bride, formed from a part of the Son's body, will be presented back to the Son as a co-heir, a helpmate, helping the Son in His millennial rule.

And, through this act, in line with both the type and Heb. 2:10, the bride will complete the Son.

Now, note something about the preceding. NONE of this can exist apart from Israel.

According to Romans chapter eleven, Gentiles, who do NOT have a God (Eph. 2:11-13), have been grafted into the ONLY nation with a God (through being "in Christ," a Jewish Saviour [v. 24]), the nation which brought forth the Saviour, the ONLY nation which could do so, for "salvation is of the Jews."

Thus, Israel is NOT ONLY seen in Genesis chapter one, BUT in chapter two as well.

THEN, the nation is seen throughout chapter three in the account of man's fall, necessitating salvation, with the account of Israel slaying Christ in the typology of Cain slaying Abel in chapter four.

And material in chapter four, both before and after the account of Cain slaying Abel, provides a complete history of the nation of Israel, 2,500 years before the nation even existed.

THEN, none of the events in chapters five through eight could have occurred apart from Israel being seen throughout — Enoch being removed from the earth alive, with Noah and his family then passing through the Flood, foreshadowing the Church being removed prior to Israel passing through the Tribulation.

As previously seen, NOTHING occurs apart from the Son, which, in reality, as also previously seen, would have to include BOTH Sons — BOTH Christ and Israel.

And aside from the preceding, the typology surrounding Enoch COULDN'T exist apart from Israel, for, apart from Israel, there could be NO Church to be removed in the antitype.

And this could be continued through subsequent chapters leading to Abraham's birth (chs. 9-11a), but the preceding material should be sufficient to get the point across.

God's work through One of His firstborn Sons simply CANNOT occur apart from the Other firstborn Son being seen as well.

(Note how the preceding takes care of a quite-popular, erroneous teaching in Christendom today — the teaching that the Church has supplanted Israel in God's plans and purposes, with God being through with Israel.

If something such as the preceding has occurred, after any fashion, then Christians can forget about everything, including their very salvation.

God's work through One Son is NOT seen, it CANNOT exist, apart from the Other Son.

Apart from a connection with both Sons — a Jewish Saviour, brought forth by a Jewish nation, with Christians seen grafted into a Jewish trunk — there can be NO salvation, or anything else, aside from eternal ruin and damnation [Rom. 11:1-26].

And the truth of the preceding can be seen throughout the first eleven chapters of Genesis, then continuing with the birth of Abraham in Gen. 11:27 and progressively moving throughout the Old Testament.

Note just one example — that of Shem, in relation to Ham and Japheth in Gen. 9:25-27.

Shem was the ONLY one of Noah's three sons possessing a God. The other two sons, WITHOUT a God, could ONLY possess a connection with God ONE way — by going to the son in possession of a God, by going to Shem and dwelling "in the tents of Shem" [the words used in Scripture to denote the ONLY way of partaking of that possessed by Shem].

Shem's lineage in this respect can be traced through Abraham nine generations later, then through Isaac, Jacob, his twelve sons, and the nation of Israel.

ALL of the other nations on earth can trace their lineage through either Ham, Japheth, or Shem's lineage through individuals other than Abraham Isaac, Jacob, and his twelve sons [cf. Gen. 10:21-31; 11:10-26; 16:15; 25:1-4, 21-26].

And, EXACTLY the same conditions exist today in relation to the descendants of Shem, Ham, and Japheth — conditions which can NEVER change. "Israel" is the ONLY nation on the face of the earth with a God, ALL of the other nations are as described in Eph. 2:11-13 [without a God (cf. Ps. 96:5)], and the nations are left with ONLY one choice IF they would have any connection with or access to God. They MUST go to the one nation with a God, to a Jewish Saviour Who is God. There is NO alternative.

NOW, note what would happen IF Shem were removed from the picture in Genesis chapter nine, or IF the nation of Israel were removed from the picture today [which are two ways of saying the same thing].

That needs to be thought through — thought about long and hard — before giving credence to what so many Christians are stating today about God being through with Israel, seeing the Church replacing Israel in God's plans and purposes.)
